

Belinda Bostic

April 25, 1957 - August 16, 2003

Belinda Bostic, daughter of Jane Ethel and Lee Curtis Bostic, Sr., was born on April 25, 1957 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on August 17, 2003, after a lengthy illness. "Little Linda", as she was affectionately known, received her education at Lake Clifton Senior High School. Belinda was loved by everyone whose life she touched. She also had a very special dear friend, Delogal Chambers, also known as "Crabby". Belinda enjoyed singing such songs as "Grandma's Hands" and "Private Dancer" and dancing for the neighbors. She also cared a lot for her grandchildren and all other kids that came around. Despite being the smallest child of all, she was always a loud and very outspoken person; but deep down inside, she was good at heart. Belinda leaves to cherish her memory: her loving mother and father, Jane and Lee Bostic her loving daughter, Tammy Simms; one son, Estes Chambers (another son, Carlos Simms, preceded her in death; two loving grandsons Lawrence and Alonzo Horton; one granddaughter, Shadae Simms; three brothers, Lee Curtis Bostic Jr., William Bostic and Joseph Bostic; four sisters, Karen Johnson, Carolyn Wilson, Mary Bostic and April Waugh (two other sisters, Rosa Mae and Barbara Jean, preceded her in death); six nephews, thirteen nieces; one grandmother, Rose Bostic; six great nieces, five great nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ So sorry for your loss. The Bible promises a time when we no longer have to fear for our lives or death. In the Bible at Micah 4:4, "They will actually sit, each one under his vine and under his fig tree and there will be no one making them tremble for the very mouth of Jehovah of armies has spoken it." It also says at Isa. 25:8, "He will actually swallow up death forever...We anxiously look forward to that time.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##
