“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences. I'm so sorry you lost your precious daughter. One day Jehovah promises to erase the pain of death from our hearts, as well as death itself. It was never a part of his purpose for people to get sick and die, and one day by means of the resurrection he will restore life back to those who have died. Isaiah 25:8 promises that he will swallow up death forever; and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. Also Daniel 12:2 tells us that there will be many of those asleep in the ground who will wake up. Please find comfort in his promises, and I hope that your cherished memories can help you to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy. The sorrow we feel when we lose someone we love can seem to go on forever. It may seem like there is no source of relief. Be assured that there is one that will provide us with relief, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). We only have to ask. He promises us that there will soon be an end to death, (Rev 21:3,4) and a resurrection for those who have fallen asleep in death (John 5:28,29). These promises were made by the "God who cannot lie." Titus 1:2. I would love to discuss these and other wonderful provisions with you. Please contact me if you are interested.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Acts 9:36-42 reports about a woman that was raised from the dead by Peter. This is one of many examples to give us hope of our dead loved ones returning to life. At John 5:21 Jesus said: "For just as the Father raises the dead up and makes them alive, so the Son also makes those alive whom he wants to." May you receive much comfort from friends and family. And may you receive much hope from these loving Bible promises. And may you draw close to the maker of them Jehovah God and his Son Jesus Christ.(James 4:8; John 17:3)##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
