“ Belmont and my Mother used to work together for University of Md at Wyndhurst. He was a beautiful person, very lovable, and always had a million dollar smile. I know he is in God's rose garden. I still have pictures of him at taken at Wyndhurst, when he had the large afro. He never met a stranger. God bless you baby. I will truly miss you. God bless you family and his partner.##imported-begin##Karen Y. Harris##imported-end##

“ Belmont was the kind of co-worker that you looked forward to seeing everyday. Every time I saw him in the hall, he'd call out, "Edddiiiiiee." I will miss walking over to the VA hospital with him for their Belgian Waffle breakfast. Though I only knew him a little under 2 years, he will be missed and I thank God that He blessed my life with Belmont's presence.##imported-begin##elow ITG##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about the wonderful resurrection hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences for your loss. We all grieve so deeply when we lose someone we love in death, but know that when we hurt, God hurts for us, because 1st John 4:8 says that "God is love." One day soon he promises to end sickness, and Isaiah 25,8 tells us that Jehovah will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. Lovingly, he provides us the hope of the resurrection. Jesus resurrected many, including his friend Lazarus, and a 12-year old little girl. Mark 5:38-43 One day your loved one will come back to life in the resurrection. May you find much comfort and strength from the scriptures, and from loving friends who care.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
