

Belton Issac

October 16, 1916 - September 29, 2005

BELTON ISAAC, SR. was born to the late Alice Wine and Nelson Isaac on October 16, 1916 in Barnwell County, South Carolina. He received his education at Yard Branch Elementary School in Williston, South Carolina. He attended Dunbar High School, and completed his education in 1955. During the flower of his youth, he was an agriculture engineer who was very successful. He would later be employed by Bethlehem Steel Inc. and after twenty-three (23) years of service, he retired in 1968, as a rigger. Daddy is a Masonic member of the Ethiopia Lodge #4, since the early 1960's. Belton was espoused in holy matrimony to the late Madie Frank, who is a virtuous woman of distinction and a devoted mother. From this union four (4) children were born. The late Alonzo, and Alice who has preceded their father in glory; Belton Isaac, Jr. and Annette. We acknowledge our sister Dorothy Butler, from South Carolina, and embrace her in love. The Isaac family migrated from South Carolina to Baltimore in 1948. Daddy's sister, Corrine Ray and her family welcomed them in love, where they would reside for a short time. The Isaac family joined Fountain Baptist Church by way of Christian experience in 1948. During this time, Rev. Dr. Barrow was the Pastor of the Church until he retired in 1971. Rev. Charles Franklin was elected pastor in 1972. And, since 1979, the very fine Rev. Herman A. Ford continues the mission and vision of the church. Daddy was a faithful servant and member who was very dedicated to his church family. Daddy attended church and Sunday School regularly, diligently seeking a closer walk with God, in Jesus' name until he became ill in 2001. He leaves to rejoice in his home-going celebration: son, Belton Isaac, Jr.; daughters Annette Isaac and Dorothy Butler; one daughter-in-law, Marie; two sisters, Maggie and Julia; one brother-in-law, Jacob Frank; two sister-in-laws, Rebecca Frank and Mary Frank; nineteen grandchildren, eighteen great-grandchildren and eight great-great-grandchildren.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the Issac family, please be comforted by the fact that Almighty God who is the "God of Comfort" knows your pain. He has given us his word, the Bible which is full of promises about what lies ahead for our loved ones. At Isaiah 26:19 it says, "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust!..." He will bring our loved ones back to us in just a short while. Imagine a worldwide family reunion like no other family reunion. Instead of outcry, we will cry out with joy. I hope you have found some peace in knowing that this pain is only temporary and will be replaced with happiness.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, Though we’ve never met, I would like to express my sincere condolences for your great loss. If I may offer a comforting scripture from God’s Word the Bible, it would be John 5:28,29 which promises: “Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life.” May your family find comfort in God’s Word during this most difficult time.##imported-begin##Kelly Gathers##imported-end##
