

Ben Alston

April 21, 1923 - August 16, 2004

Ben Alston Sr., son of the late Hilliard and Alice Turner Alston, was born on April 21, 1923 in Halifax County, North Carolina. He was educated in the Halifax County Public School System. He departed this life on August 16, 2004 after a lengthy illness. In the early 1940's he moved to Baltimore City. He married Mattie Stuckey in 1945, and out of this union four children were born, Ben Jr., Betty Jane, Diane and Albert. Ben was loved by many—his family, the Wyman Park Breakfast Group and his Keswick Family. He greeted everyone with a smile and always thanked you for anything you did for him. He was a sweet, quiet and thoughtful person. We know he will be greatly missed. He always said, "Thank you for your nice hospitality." Ben enjoyed listening to the ball game and the WBAL radio talk shows. To his close friends, he was known as Rhyming Ben, because his responses were always in rhyme. He was employed by Davidson Transfer and was brick mason for Prince Brothers until he became disabled. He leaves to mourn: his children, Ben Jr., Betty Jane, Diane, Albert, and Frankie; a brother, two sisters-in-law, a brother-in-law, a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ *My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. “ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I would first like to send my deepest sympathy to your family during this time. The bible however does provide a hope for your family. Isaiah 25:8 speaks of a time when 'he will actually swallow up death forever....'In addition, the bible tells us that there will be a resurrection at John 5:28,29. The resurrection will reunite relatives with their loved ones. May these scriptures provide you with hope and encouragement.##imported-begin##T. Alston##imported-end##

“ Dear friends and family, I am so sorry to hear about the loss of Mr. Alston. When we lose someone that is dear to us it can leave us feeling so lonely and empty inside. No matter how much time goes by the pain from losing a loved one is still there. I have found that the finest basis for encouragement comes from the Bible. A relationship with your Creator Almighty God Jehovah can help you to cope with your loss. (Read Psalms 83:18.) Never underestimate the value of prayer. If talking to a friend can help you, how much more will pouring out your heart to the God of all comfort help you. Notice what the bible says at Psalms 55:22....Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you. Never will he allow the righteous to totter. There is also a brochure entitled "When Someone You Love Dies" that is very comforting. This article is free and is based upon God's word the Bible. You can get a copy from anyone of Jehovah's Witnesses. I want to encourage you to read scriptures that have been written from your copy of your Bible. I hope that you can find some comfort from these scriptures. Take care.##imported-begin##Ava##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
