

Benjamin Hill

June 20, 1921 - January 12, 2004

Benjamin Hill, son of the late Stephen and Irene Hill, was born on June 20, 1921 in Tarboro, South Carolina. He departed this life to enter into eternal rest on January 12, 2004 at Maryland General Hospital. Bennie, as family and friends fondly called him, migrated to Baltimore, Maryland at an early age. He received his formal education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. On October 6, 1943, he was drafted into the United States Army Air corps. He was trained at the AFF Technical School in Tuskegee, Alabama as an aircraft mechanic. He was responsible for maintenance and repair of At-6 military aircraft and military engines and received an honorable discharge on March 20, 1946. He was employed as a longshoreman with the Baltimore Steamship Trade Association. He retired in 1975 after many years of service. After retirement, he enjoyed working in the home improvement business with his late brother, Frankie. On September 15, 1957, he was united in holy matrimony to the late Louise Randall. From this union, one daughter was born, Benita Vanessa. Bennie's favorite pastime was watching westerns, movies, comedy shows, playing cards, and eating steamed crabs. He would also listen to the gospel music and ministry daily of the Heaven 600 Radio Broadcast. He was always willing to lend a helping hand to his neighbors and friends. He was a loving and devoted husband, father, brother and friend. Everyone who knew him will sincerely miss him. Bennie was preceded in death by his oldest daughter, Mrs. Patricia Miller. Bennie leaves to cherish fond memories: a devoted daughter, Benita; one brother, Lemuel Hill; three sisters, Irene

Gilmore, Lucille O'Neil of Queens, New York, and Delois Reed of Millersville, Maryland; three brothers-in-law, Lee P. O'Neil, Robert Reed and John Andrew Randall of Amelia, Virginia; one sister-in-law, Sarah Randall of Brooklyn, New York; three grandchildren, four great-grandchildren and one great-great grandchild; devoted cousins, Dorothea Johnson and Frances Monroe; goddaughters, Karen Harris and Betty Myers; special friends, Magalena Sanders and Cleo Bannister; two caregivers, Hilda Melvin and Valencia Duggins; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ My condolences to the family on the loss of your dear loved one. May you be comforted by the loving promise at John 5:28,29- "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life."##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends my condolences. May you cherish her memory. The Bible has words of comfort. At 1 Corinthians 15:26 states, "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing. God has promised to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these words be of comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##
