

Benjamin Scott

June 8, 1929 - January 26, 2002

Benjamin Bernard Scott, son of the late Jack and Virgie Scott, was born on June 8, 1929 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on Saturday, January 26, 2002 after a lengthy illness. Benjamin was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools. He met and married Helen Driver at a very young age. Out of this union. Thirteen children were born. He was employed at Eastern Stainless Steel. He retired after thirty-five years of service. "Bennie," as everyone knew him, was very fortunate during his illness. He had his own private duty nurse, who was just a call away. She was his constant companion, and resided just up the street. This was his daughter, Kathy. Bennie was a loving and caring person whose first priority was his family. His door was open to everyone. He had a great passion for cooking and entertaining anybody and everybody's friends. He had a great sense of humor. His pastime was telling jokes. He really loved to laugh. He was full of life. Bennie leaves to mourn: his wife, Helen Scott; eight daughters, Brenda, Carolyn, Gwendolyn, Virginia, Ida, Wanda, Teresa and liken; five sons, Benjamin Jr., Ghais, Wayne, Anthony and James; brothers, Harry, Anthony and Francis; sisters, Alberta, Jean, Hilda and Doris (he was preceded in death by three brothers and two sisters); forty-five grandchildren (two grandsons preceded him in death), seventeen great-grandchildren, four sisters-in-law, two brothers-in-law, five sons-in-law, five daughters-in-law, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. I've love you for fifty years, We weathered the storms of life; I will always possess undying love, I was proud to have been your wife. Lovingly submitted, Your Wife Helen
