

Benjamin Williams

August 22, 1958 - March 31, 2005

Benjamin Williams Jr., oldest son of the late Benjamin Williams Sr. and Jean Alberta Butler, was born on August 22, 1958 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life suddenly on March 31, 2005. "Block," "Weasel," "Critter," "Curley," or "Junior," as he was affectionately known, received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He was last employed by the Arbutus Cemetery in Baltimore, Maryland as a groundskeeper. Benjamin will be fondly remembered for his love of mowing lawns, washing cars and joking with everyone he knew. He made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He leaves to mourn: one daughter, Shirley Denise Williams; two sons, Benjamin Williams Jr. II and Antoine Weaver; three brothers, Leroy E. Williams, Leon Williams and Willie Williams; four sisters, Joanie Meshezabe, Dorothy Williams, Gracie A. Williams and Jean A. Butler; two brothers-in-law, Samuel Meshezabe and Steven Jackson; sister-in-law, Jacqueline Williams; a very special friend, Shirley Lee Weaver; eight nieces, one nephew, three great-nephews, six great-nieces, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to hear that you lost your son,father,brother,friend. Please gain solace from the Bible. Such passages as Isaiah 25:8,9 which speaks of death being swallowed up forever and John 5:28,29 which speak of a resurrection of the dead can be very comforting. Please read them when you have the time.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ I am sorry for your great loss. I send my condolences to the family. It seems unfair that death has the power to take our loved ones away, but the Bible does offer us a hope. Isaiah 26:19 says, "Your dead ones will live...They will rise up." May you be comforted in your time of grief.##imported-begin##Kendra A.##imported-end##
