

Beora Laverne Clark

October 18, 1957 - March 15, 2022

BEORA LAVERNE CLARK, the daughter of the late murdies and John Clark, was born on October 18, 1957.

Beora grew up in Baltimore, Maryland. She attended and graduated from Douglass High School.

Beora met Roland Walter Holdclaw in the early 1980's, with whom she had her only son, Madison Clark.

Beora enjoyed all physical activities and was a 'Jack-of-all-Trades'. Beora loved to cook, spend time with her family and her church family. She could do anything, from home improvements to working on cars. If you really looked at her, you would have never known that she could do home improvements and work on cars.

Beora was employed at St. Joseph's Hospital, in Towson, MD, for 16 years, until the Lord called her Home.

Beora was very active with her church family, Southern Friendship Baptist Church. She was a very faithful steward for her church family and for the Lord, Jesus Christ. She would do anything you asked of her. Beora was extremely outgoing and she touched the hearts of everyone she came in contact with or met.

Beora leaves to cherish her beloved memory; her son, Madison Clark; her daughter-in-law, Raven Clark; her brother, Maurice Clark; two sisters, Barbara Jordan and Wendy Wilkins; her fiancé, Kevin Pollard; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Beora will forever be loved and missed by all who were blessed with the opportunity to know her.
