

Bereese H. Hall

November 14, 1937 - October 13, 2013

BEREESSE HYBERNIA HALL was born in Baltimore, Maryland on November 14, 1937 to Clarence Hall, Sr. and Elizabeth Reavis Hall Burnett. On October 13, 2013, God called her home after a brief illness.

Bereese graduated from Banneker High School in Catonsville, Maryland and from Cortez Peters Business School in Baltimore City. She worked for the Social Security Administration for over thirty years.

Bereese was such a vibrant, loving person. She was quick to laugh, and had a tremendous sense of humor. She cared deeply for her family and friends, and was always there ready to offer a hug, lend an ear, or give advice. She enjoyed jazz, writing poetry, and getting together with friends. Last year she received an iPad as a gift, and it soon became one of her favorite possessions. She spent many hours playing her new favorite game, "Words With Friends". If you didn't take your turn fast enough she would give you a call to tell you that she played a word, and that now it was your turn. She was a devoted mother, and took great pride in her grandchildren. She was always ready to tell all who would listen about Andy, Kyle or Candice's latest, greatest accomplishment! Bereese was full of life, and could make others feel good just by her presence.

Bereese will forever be carried in the hearts of the many family members and friends who love her. She leaves to mourn: her daughter, Lisa; and son-in-law, Andreas; her grandchildren, Andreas T. Dailey Jr. (Camille Dailey), Kyle T. Dailey and Candice E. Dailey; great-granddaughter, Jasmine R. Dailey; sisters, Vivian Hall and Joan Hall; brothers, Clarence Hall, Jr. and Charles Burnett II (Linda Burnett); nephews, Joel Hall, Charles Burnett III; nieces, Linda Patrice Hall, Laverne Maloney and Charlice Burnett; aunt, Lydia Reavis; Dr. Andrea Waker and Karen Solomon (whom she loved as daughters); goddaughter, Renee Smith. She also leaves a host of cousins, friends, and her dear friends at Morningside Senior Apartments.

“ To the family of Bereese H. Hall:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ My sincerest condolences .. I am so sorry to learn of the passing of your dear loved one. Death is such a difficult concept for mankind to accept, simply because our Heavenly Father never purposed it for mankind. He hates death and calls it an enemy. Very soon, He will stop it once and for all. (1Corinthians 15:26; Isaiah 28:5) Mankind will live in peace, happiness, and perfect health (Psalms 37:9-11, Revelations 21: 3,4 and Isaiah 33:24) May you draw much comfort in the Creator's wonderful promises, and know that soon we will welcome our loved ones back, wrapping our arms around them once again. It is my hope that knowing this will take away some of your deep sorrow.
