To: Our loving Son and Brother, Thomas we wish you could have stayed to share all the love you had, but the Lord has called you home to be with him instead. Maybe if we had known that you would part, then we could have shared that last beat of your heart. If only we could have said good-bye, maybe it wouldn't hurt so much when we cry; our consolation will be with out pain, when we think of our loss as heaven's gain. Lovingly Submitted: The Family
