

Berline E. Sherrod

January 12, 1932 - May 18, 2018

Berline Ernestine Sherrod was born January 12, 1932 in St. Augustine, Florida to Geraldine Barnes and Ernest Irving. She departed peacefully on Friday, May 18, 2018.

She received her education in Florida and later moved to Baltimore where she graduated from the old Douglass High School on Carey Street. As time passed, Berline relocated to New York City.

In her younger years in the "Big Apple", Berline found employment with the late Hollywood actress Julia Newmar. She later was gainfully employed with the United States Postal Service until her retirement. After retirement she remained in Harlem, NY with her partner James Veasley until his passing.

Deciding it was best to be with her family, Berline moved back to Baltimore where she resided with her family. Berline loved music, dancing, Atlantic City casinos (which became an annual family tradition to visit every year for her birthday) and horse races.

She was preceded in death by her parents Geraldine and Rufus Claiborn, one sister and two brothers.

She leaves to cherish her memory: four children, Acquilla Wingfield, Tanya

Sherrod, James Veasley and Pamela Dilworth; five grandchildren, Torico, Shytima, Tia, Gerald and Sharla; six great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren; extended family Ravi, Derek, Shawn, the late Juanito (Tatus); and a host of friends and relatives.

“ There have been so many happy memories of Moma Berline but our Poconoa trip replays often in my mind. Me, Tanya and David followed you all over the dance floor as you had to dance, dance, dance! You had a way of making everyone you met feel loved as if family. My Love and Condolences to the Sherrod Family. Moma was loved and cared for to the very end....
