

Bernadette Bostic

February 2, 1968 - January 27, 2005

Bernadette Bostic, daughter of James R. and the late Ruth E. Bostic, was born February 2, 1968 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on January 27, 2005 after a lengthy illness. Bernadette received her education at Mergenthaler Vocational-Technical High School in Baltimore, Maryland. After receiving her high school diploma, Bernadette continued her education and became certified in computer technology. Bernadette enjoyed beautifying herself and others with her cosmetology skills. She also enjoyed eating lots of rolls and her late grandma Elnora's hot biscuits. She was a very friendly person who enjoyed making others laugh. Bernadette was preceded in death by her dear friend, Al Owens. Bernadette leaves to cherish her memory: her devoted father, James R. Bostic; her children, Weaver Dorsey III and DaiShawn Richardson-Brown; sisters, Stephanie Brown and Terry L. Thomas; brother, James H. Bostic; stepbrother, Robert L. Thomas; brother-in-law, Kevin M. Brown; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, a great-niece, other relatives and friends.

“ To Family, I am so sorry to learn of the loss of your love one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I hope you are finding comfort. What has help me is the Bible. At John 5:28,29, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out,..." One day we will be re-united with our love ones. I hope this thought will be of help.##imported-begin##Julia Brown##imported-end##

“ To the family, I want to express my sincere condolences on the passing of your loved one. Losing a person in death is unnatural because Jehovah God did not make us to die. He promises to give us comfort in our time of need because at 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 it states that he is the God of all comfort. Another way he comforts us is by the hope laid out in the scriptures. Please read John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:3,4; Psalm 37:10,11. Again, please accept my condolences.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
