“ Mommy, It's been 2 years since God took your hand and called you into His Kingdom. The years have been long and my heart still hearts. I do not want to cry, but it is so very hard knowing that I can no longer hug, kiss, and tell you I love you face-to-face. I know you are always with me and I felt your strong presence when I laid in that hospital bed this past September. Your strength and determination inspired me to recover and keep pushing. I miss you like crazy, but I thank God for allowing me to have had you for as long as I did. You taught me how to be a woman of character, strength, and faith. You showed me what a true mother is supposed to do, regardless of the obstacles. Like I said, I miss you like crazy, but I know you are walking with me. I thank God for your life. God truly blessed me when He chose you to be my mother. I will love you forever. Missing You, Shelly##imported-begin##Shelly##imported-end##

“ Hello ! Hick's! I would like to send condolences to you all.May you circle of life being broken recently with the loss of Ms. Bernadette have a healing in knowing that others care. We all have lost someone at one time or another . The comfort comes from our heavenly father as the bible say at Romans 15:4. Imagine happiness all around when the dead are resurrected as John 5:28 say. May these uplifting words be purposeful to read.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. At times like these it may seem that there is no source of comfort. No source of relief from your sorrow. I have been able to find comfort in God's Word, The Bible. I have found comfort from the wonderful hope expressed at Acts 24:15 and the promise made at John 5:28,29. May these serve as a source of comfort for you also.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ To the Hicks Family: Bernie was a magnificent woman; beautiful both inward and outward. I consider myself blessed to have known her and been a part of her life. Bernie made each day coming to Johns Hopkins a joyful experience. We would talk about fashion, the hip hop culture, music, memories from "back in the day", grandchildren, children and world in general. The trumpets are sounding in Heaven; it has one more bright, shining star! Rest my sista, the pain and suffering is over. I will see you again!###imported-begin###Karol Shannon Gatewood###imported-end###
