

Bernadette Hughes

August 29, 1954 - October 15, 2015

Bernadette Hughes, daughter of David Hughes and the late Helen Henson, was born on August 29, 1954 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life suddenly on October 15, 2015 at the age of 61.

Bernadette received her education in Baltimore City Public School Systems. She was gainfully employed throughout Baltimore as a Customer Service Representative, until she became ill.

Bernadette was a member of the Calvary Baptist Church. She was a kind and loving woman with a smile that would light up a room. She had a sense of fashion like no other and was always looking for a bargain. She absolutely loved going to Flea Markets or the local Thrift Stores. What she treasured the most was her family. She loved and cherished her only child Chanel and could call her name like no one else could "NEL". She undeniably adored her grandchildren and great grandson. Bernadette was a giver no matter how small; she was always willing to help anyone, if she could. She was truly "One Of A Kind".

Bernadette was blessed to be loved by so many. She leaves to mourn: her father, David Hughes; her daughter, Chanel Jenkins; a son she called her own, Gregory Hudson Sr.. Four grandchildren: Gregory, Derrick, Brittini and Brion Hudson. One great grandson: Jaiden Hudson. Four sisters: Arlene

Hughes, Helen Henson, Loretta Howard, and Darlene Hughes. Five brothers: Anthony, Clinton, Joseph, Mark, and Paul Hughes; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
