

Bernadette McCutcheon

June 6, 1955 - March 13, 2018

BERNADETTE ANGELLINA MCCUTHEON, daughter of the late James and Dorothy McMutheon, was born on June 6, 1955 in Baltimore, Md. She transitioned from earthly realm on Tuesday, March 13, 2018 after lengthy illness.

Angellina was educated in the Baltimore Catholic school system where she attended Bay Collage. Later in her life, after losing her sight, she was enrolled in the School for the Blind and was an excellent student.

Angie, as she was called, had such a passion for cooking. It became her livelihood. She could take anything and turn into a "Gourmet" meal. She catered many family and church events during the years.

Angelina always displayed he loved for children, and their love for her was reciprocated. She was the Babysitter for family and friends. You knew your children were in good hands with her. "They would be drinking from the bottle when you dropped them off and drinking from a cup when you picked them up."

Her love for the holidays spoke for itself. She loved to decorate (and that she did). Not only were there decorations but food and desserts galore. You never left her home hungry. At Christmas, she made sure the children had stockings, baskets for Easter and at Halloween plenty of treats.

Angellina leaves to cherish her memory: three sons, Dominick McCutheon Courtney McCutheon and Kevin Burden; three daughters, lisha Jernigon, Hope Burden and Morgan Burden; two granddaughters, Kortni and Niche McCutheon; grandson, Kenard Becketts; great-granddaughter, Kori Williams. She is survived by siblings, Beverly Reed, Ahnna Viner (Robert Viner), Alilcia McCutheon-Mason (Victor Mason), Dorian McCutheon (Kendra) and Aundrea Baker (siblings Delano and Delores Thaxton preceded her in death); a host of nieces nephews, other family members and friends who loved and will miss her dearly.
