

Bernard Chambers

May 11, 1930 - March 7, 2003

Bernard K. Chambers, son of the late Robert and Pearl Chambers, was born on May 11, 1930 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life suddenly on May 7, 2003. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. Soon after, he was drafted into the United States Army from 1951-1955. After his discharge from the Army, he met and married the former Gladys Ford in 1957. Together this union brought four children. Bernard worked at the Pott City Press for thirty-four years where he met many people. Bernard, a.k.a. Jimbo, made numerous friends wherever he went. He was known for his conversations (boy, he could talk-don't let him start talking and laughing). He had a laugh that would make the saddest person smile. He will be greatly missed. He leaves to mourn: his loving wife, Gladys Chambers; daughter, Bernadine Flemings; son, Gary Chambers, (daughter, Bernadine Mack and son, George Ford preceded him in death); brother, Albert Jones; two sisters, Dorothy Woodrow and Earlene Jones; sister-in-law, Mary Davis; brother-in-law, William Davis; eleven grandchildren, Marlo, Marcine, Lynette, Lisa, Artavia, Selena, Bernadine, Jessica, Arthur, Nakeisha and Kevin Ford; seventeen great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and a host of relatives and friends.
