

Bernard Clowney

December 8, 1960 - December 31, 2010

Bernard Clowney son of the late Andy and Martha Gray- Clowney was born on December 8, 1960 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was the youngest of eight children.

“Bernie” as he was best known attended Baltimore City Public School. He also attended a trade school in Michigan where he studied carpentry and brick-laying.

Bernie returned to Baltimore and became an electrician. He also experienced some trials and tribulations, but he had a special and devoted cousin, Gregg Carter who reached out to him, and assisted him with obtaining employment with LOCAL, 70 IBEW Electrical Company in 1999. He enjoyed working there where he remained until his passing.

Bernie loved fashionable clothes. When he dressed he matched from head to toe, inside and out. He loved telling jokes and boy would he have you laughing. He will truly be missed by all.

Bernie had family members who pre-deceased him which includes one sister, Isabelle Clowney-Wallace, three brothers, Andrew, Isiac, and William Clowney, one niece Rhonda Clowney, three nephews, Isiac, Jr., Keith Clowney and Terry Wallace.

Bernie leaves to cherish his memory: two sisters, Nancy Harrington and Patricia Brown, One brother James Auther Clowney, 2 brother-in-law, Graylin Harrington, James Brown, Sr.; four nieces, Telacy Allen, Kim Holmes, Whitney Boyer, and Angela Clowney; nine nephews , James “Jimmy” Harrington, Gary”Gee” Wallace, Kevin “Kake” Clowney, William Clowney, Tarone Bailey, Dion Period, Derrick “DJ' Smith, James “ Erikie”Brown, Jr. and James Clowney; Jr. three aunts, Rosemarie Clowney, Marie Coleman and Josephine Clowney; one uncle John Robert Clowney; nineteen great nieces and nephews; three great great nieces and nephews and a special friend, Lessie Torain.
