

Bernard Delane

March 5, 1924 - December 20, 2014

BERNARD DELANE, son of the late James Delane and Agnes Polk, was born on March 5, 1924 in Sumter County, South Carolina. On Saturday, December 13, 2014, the Lord called home one of His faithful servants.

Bernard accepted Christ at an early age. He was a member of Morning Star Baptist Church located in Catonsville, Maryland.

He received his education in the South Carolina Public School System. He later moved to Baltimore, Maryland and pursued a career in the Air Force where he was honorably discharged. After being honorably discharged, he met and married the love of his life, Josephine Handy, who preceded him in death. He also found employment at Amstar Corporation where he worked for thirty-eight years and retired in April of 1986.

Bernard was affectionately known by his friends and family as "Needles". They called him Needles because he was a sharp dresser and thinker. In addition, he impacted the lives of everyone who knew him with his godly wisdom, giving spirit and a straight forward character. During his spare time, he was a handy man and enjoyed hunting. He will be truly missed by everyone who knew him.

He leaves to cherish his memory: six nephews, Bernard Handy, Charles Handy (a very special nephew who was like a son to him), Michael Handy, Larry Handy, Jeffrey Handy, and Mark Handy of Baltimore, Maryland; three nieces, Betty Floyd, Elaine Handy, and Michelle Handy of Baltimore, Maryland; one niece-in-law, Beverly Handy; and host of great-nieces, great-nephews, other relatives and friends.
