

Bernard Douglas. Jr.

July 7, 1953 - August 11, 2017

BERNARD DOUGLAS JR., son of the late Bernard Sr. and Ila Douglas was born July 7, 1953 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life suddenly on August 11, 2017 after a short illness.

He received his education at the Samuel Gompers Vocational School in Baltimore. Bernard worked various jobs; Burger King, Wockersfuss Candies, USF and G and Mackie's Crabhouse just to name a few.

“Fathertime”, as he was lovingly known, made numerous friends wherever he went. All that knew him well sincerely miss him. He was a happy go lucky person and made calls to check up on family and friends.

“Fathertime” loved traveling to all the festivals, especially the “Afram”. Whenever 95.9 had anything, he was there. He was always so cool with sunshades that he loved so much.

I believed he knew everyone in Baltimore City. He loved music and going to the casino.

He was preceded in death by his sister, Joyce Smith and brother, James (Jimmy) Douglas.

He leaves to cherish his memory: three sisters; Patricia (Gregory), Myra and Doris (Renee) Douglas; great-aunt, Ida McIntosh; two uncles, Alvin Douglas and James R. Brown; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ Bernard (Father Time) as you were affectionately know. You will truly be missed. The Booker's always loved when you came over to Aunt Shirley's house in West Baltimore, and chased us girls all day. We had so much fun, laughing and running from you. You always knew how to make us laugh. Just seeing you, you would have this big grin on your face, and we knew you were going to be up to some mischief and of course you were all day. We could not wait until you came back to West Baltimore.

I know when the Angels saw you they said oh boy, we gonna have some fun now.

*Love your

“ You were a wonderful person and will be missed. I will missed seeing you at all the festival through baltimore. You were funny, happy and delightful person. My sympathy goes out to the Douglas family. May he still be apart of your heart that will continue to be a part of you. Remember all the good times that will help you through the days that come. He is now int the land of paradise , with no pain, sorrow, crime,hated,deception,wickedness, shame or burdens. May you rest in peace with no worries to cease. Your were life blessing.
