

Bernard Clifford Fenwick

August 18, 1959 - February 26, 2019

Bernard “Doon” Clifford Fenwick, was born on August 18, 1959 in St. Mary’s County, Maryland to Rosalee Fenwick and the late Bernard Daye. He departed this life on February 26, 2019.

Doon was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He later became employed by the Dance Brothers Construction Inc. He also did a multiply of odd jobs on the side for friends and family.

Doon while in middle school met a very special friend, Jenice Johnson “AKA Elise”, who became his best friend and lover since kids (thirty-seven years union.)

Doon made numerous friends everywhere he went. He will always be remembered for his shy like beautiful smile and his warm heart. Everywhere Doon went someone always had beautiful things to say about him.

Doon was preceded in death by his father, Bernard Daye; sister, Eloise Peel; brothers, Frank and Ronald Fenwick; grandparents, Samuel and Florence Daye, Rose and Howard White; aunts and uncles, Thomas and Shirley Carroll, Leroy and Mae White, Leonard White, Regina Mason, Gertrude Brown , Jim, Albert, Eugene and John Daye; and sister-in-law, Pam Fenwick.

Doon leaves to mourn: his mother, Rosalee Fenwick; two sisters, Denise and Maria Fenwick of Baltimore, Maryland; a brother, John Fenwick of Delaware; two special nieces, Tanasha and Takiyah; a special nephew, Tion; and a host of other aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, family and friends.
