“ To the Fowlkes Family:

I just wanted to share some words of comfort with you. I was reading about the death of your loved one and I wanted to share some words of comfort. When we lose someone we love in death it hurts us. God is well aware that it does hurt us so he gives us comfort from his word the bible. It tells us at Isaiah 25:8 that 'God will swallow up death forever'. So the time will come when Revelation 21:4 will be fulfilled. It tells us there, that 'there will be no more death, sickness or pain'. What a wonderful hope we have. Well I do hope these words have been of encouragement to you. If you have any comments or questions please e-mail me.

“ To the family, please accept my condolences. May you have comfort in the scripture at Rev 21:34 which tell us that Almighty God will soon remove both sickness and death forever. Then we will be able to live forever in paradise. May these thoughts comfort you at this time.

“ My dad (who is 97) is still with my family and so I know how nice it must have been to have had Mr. Fowlkes with you until he was 96. May your many fine memories of him help you to cope with your loss and may the God of all comfort and tender mercies be with your family until you see him again in the resurrection. (John 5:28, 29) Please accept my sincere condolences.

*To the family , I am so sorry for your loss and know that we all look forward to the time when death the last enemy will be done away with. We have these loving promises in the Bible -John 5: 28,29 Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29 and come out , those who did good things to a resurrection of life and those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgement.
Revelation 21:4 And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes , and death will be no more ,neither will mourning nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.*
