

Bernard H. Lane

May 8, 1923 - April 21, 2009

Bernard Hewitt Lane, Sr., 85, of Baltimore, Maryland, departed this life on April 21, 2009. He was born to the union of Arterway Lane and Lillie Willis in Scotland Neck, North Carolina, on May 8 1923. Buddy, as he was affectionately called by his family, was the fourth child of nine children born of this union. Bernard was a hard worker starting at the very young age of eight plowing fields on a share-cropper farm to help his parents support their family. During his life, he worked as a short order cook, in the shipyards of Newport News, Virginia, as a barber, and numerous other jobs, From June, 1946 until January, 1982, Lane worked as a rigger and later as a rigger foreman for foreman for the Bethlehem Steel Company. Buddy enjoyed having a good time. He especially liked going to the track and betting on his favorite 3,6 and 8 horses and always betting on a “gray” horse. One particular joy Bernard got was attending his beloved Fulton Baptist Church each Sunday where he always sat in the pew bearing his name. Mr. Lane made sure he was “Jody Sharp” whenever he went to church. For the last four years, Pop Pop lived in Irvine, California, near his daughter Freda and son-in-law Darryl. Although he greatly missed family and friends in Baltimore, Virginia and North Carolina, he made new friends in California. He expressly loved visiting with his grandsons and great-grandsons and the warm California weather. Daddy, Bernard, Buddy, Bernie, Lane, Pop Pop (all of the names he answered to) leaves to cherish his memory: his beloved children, Belinda, Gwendolyn, Bernard, Jr. and Freda; his former wife, Lula Lane; grandsons, Ryan Bernard, Derrick, Darrin, Tommy,

Antonio, Almon and granddaughter Tenetta. He is also survived by: three great-grandsons and three great-granddaughters; sisters, Alfreda Drummond, Lillian Caulfield and Frances Lane; along with a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and many close friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Bernard H. Lane

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Rev 21:4,5 helps us see our enemies sickness, pain, sorrow and death will be done away with. I look forward to that time. May you receive comfort and strength from the Bibles wonderful hope.##imported-begin##B. Dixon##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Very sorry to hear of your loss, may you find comfort in knowing that others care. Our greatest source of comfort comes from the God of all comfort and tender mercy, call on him he will help you to deal with the loss of someone special to you, my deepest sympathy is extended to family and friends. (2Corinthians 1:3-4), hold on to his memories, in time they will help you to heal.##imported-begin##Josephine##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. John 5:28,29 lovingly informs us: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". May you receive much comfort and strength from this wonderful resurrection hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the Family, Please accept my condolences. May you find comfort in the scriptures at John 11:38-44. Here Jesus resurrected his friend Lazarus. May this strengthen your hope in the resurrection and give you comfort you need.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Dear family and friends of Bernard, I am so sorry that he passed away. My deepest condolences to you all. Whenever your pain gets to be too much to bear, please keep this heartwarming scripture in mind found at Isaiah 66:13 which says, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people." Jehovah gives us so much assurance of his love and caring, because indeed he knows the pains that we go through. One day he promises to wipe away all tears, and all tragedies, all violence, all sickness, and all death will be a thing of the past. Isaiah 65:17 promises, "For here I am creating new heavens and a new earth, and the former things will not be called to mind; neither will they come up into the heart." One day your loved one will awaken from the deep sleep of death, because Jesus will call their name and they will come out of the memorial tombs. John 5:28,29 May you find much comfort and strength from Jehovah's promises.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM