

Bernard J. Glenn

June 11, 1959 - July 6, 2006

BERNARD JOHNSON GLENN, better known as "Bern" to us, son of Madeline Braggs and the late Johnson Bernard Glenn, stepfather Robert Braggs, was born on June 11, 1959 in Baltimore, Md. He departed this life on July 6, 2006. He received his education in the Anne Arundel County Public School System. He held numerous jobs, and was the Jack of all trades, but had a passion for doing concrete work. Although self employed, he spent a lot of time working with his two uncles, Sam and Jim. No matter what you asked him to do, he was always willing to help. No job was too big or too small. Bern was fun, loving and very outspoken. Sometimes, he would say things that would hit a soft spot, but meant no harm, that was imminent of his sense of humor. He always kept us laughing, and knew what to say to get what he wanted. He was a good storyteller, trying hard to convince you that his stories were true. Cortez (Bo), his only brother, was his idol and best friend. He was very protective of him, always looking out for his welfare. When his health began to decline, he was more concerned about the health of his mother than his own, and advised her to take care of herself and that he would be all right. Not once did he complain about his condition, for as sick as he was you would have understood. Bern was baptized and accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as his personal Savior. He leaves to cherish his memory: his parents, Madeline Braggs, stepfather, Elder Robert Braggs; his children, Britnee, Bernard, Jr., and Sonarda (he was also a father figure to Felicia, SandrŽ and Rendall); four sisters, Geraldine Osborne, Gloria Howell, Debra Robinson, and Brenda Day; one brother, Cortez Glenn; four brothers-in-law, Dr. Vernon Osborne, Sr., Broadus Robinson, Wyatt Howell and Kenny Day; one sister-in-law, Patty Glenn; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. First Corinthians chapter 15, verse 26 tells us that our enemy death will one day be destroyed. There is hope for our dead loved ones returning to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Revelation 21:4, Matthew 5:5 and Luke 23:43) To add to that Acts 24:15 assures us- "There is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from these loving promises found in the Bible.##imported-begin##S. Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of your loved one. During this difficult time, the scriptures are wonderful source of comfort. Almighty God promises us at Isaiah 26:19 that "Your dead ones will live...they will rise up..." May this wonderful hope of seeing your dear loved one again bring a measure of comfort to you and your family during this period of mourning.##imported-begin##S. Sloane##imported-end##
