

Bernard Jermaine Solomon

March 31, 1985 - July 29, 2008

BERNARD JERMAINE SOLOMON was the son of Ms. Beverly Brown and Mr. Clay Hart. He was born on March 31, 1985 at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. Bernard departed this life suddenly on Tuesday, July 29, 2008. He attended several Baltimore City public schools. Occasionally, he visited various churches throughout the city with family and friends. In his lifetime, Bernard was employed by the Forum Catering Services, as a flagman for B.G.E. and as an unloader for Walmart. Lastly, he found his passion in going to auto auctions. He was a self-proclaimed auto mechanic, which came naturally. It was not unusual to find Bernard working on a car all night long, without stopping to eat. He would make a hootie run and look good, which then led to self-employment. He would sell his car making a profit and then go back to the auction. This process went on and on. Bernard was extremely talented. He also liked to draw. There were many sides to Bernard; it would take a lifetime to share them all. His greatest love was being a father to his two sons, Little Bernard and Baby Bryan. They gave him joy and happiness. He was seen with baby bottles, changing diapers, buying big bags of candy or riding them around in his car. Bernard's life was cut short, but his life was full of love from his family and friends. He never had a frown on his face, just a smile headed your way. If he were here today, this is what his mother would say. He leaves to mourn: his mother, Beverly; father, Clay Sr.; six sisters, Latia, Clayiesha, Resse, Brittany, Diamond and Chatese; five brothers, Jack, Sean, Clay Jr.; Big Bernard and Jason; a loving and devoted aunt, Lena; special cousin, Larry; a friend, China; grandmother, Jean (he was preceded in death by his other grandmother, Lucy Bell. I know that my mother was waiting for him at the pearly gates with open arms, I can hear her saying, "Welcome Home, Bernie."); aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, a host of other relatives and friends from Baltimore, Maryland and Durham, North Carolina.

“ Family, please accept my heartfelt condolences for your loss. I didn't know him, but he sure did have a beautiful smile to no doubt, fit a beautiful personality. It hurts so much when we lose our loved ones, especially when it is unexpected. Jehovah God is the source of all life, and he hates death. When we hurt, he hurts for us, and that is why he has a wonderful purpose to put an end to all tragedies that happen to people, as well as sickness and death. This was never his purpose for his earthly children, because he loves us as much as he loves his heavenly children, the angels, that is why he sent his best angel, Jesus Christ, his beloved angelic son. He sent Jesus to undo the pain and sorrow Adam brought upon the whole human race, because of his disobedience. That is why 1st Cor 15:22 says, "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ, all will be made alive." He is creating a peaceful new world where violence and tragedy will be no more. Psalm 37:10,11 and 2nd Peter 3:13 talks about this righteous new world soon to come. We are all sick of all the violence, sick of hearing about innocent people being killed, and sick of people dying in accidents and from various sicknesses. If we're sick of it, imagine how our loving heavenly father feels about it. Make no mistake about it; all this pain is definitely going to end soon, because we are in the last days, "I'm so sorry you lost your Bernard, and I would like to help you to see through a bible discussion how Jehovah's blessings will soon come upon the earth, if you are interested, please contact me at my e-mail address. Take care family, and be strong.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
