

Bernard L. Little

June 9, 1951 - October 19, 2010

On June 9, 1951 BERNARD L. affectionately known as “Kook” and “Bernie” was born to the late Clarence T. Little and Janie Ruth Gray, in Statesville, North Carolina. God called him home on October 19, 2010. Bernard moved to Baltimore with his family at an early age and attended the Baltimore City Public School System. He graduated from Edmondson High School in 1970.

On October 22, 1979 Bernard married the love of his life, Linda Gross. They were married for thirty-one years. From this union the couple was blessed with beautiful twin daughters, Deetria and Desiree. After graduating from Edmonson High School, Bernard gained employment at the General Electric plant in Columbia, Maryland. After leaving this job Bernard obtained his final position with the United States Postal Service in Washington, D.C. He worked here for twenty-two years until his untimely death.

Bernard knew and loved Christ from an early age. He had an unabashed passion for life and he soaked in every minute of it. He read widely and could engage even person with the Ph.D Degree in conversation. Bernard could walk and talk with everyone from the man on the street to the corporate executive. Bernard had a passion for life that made him special and unique and loved and respected by all who knew him. He made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. Some of his hobbies were reading political novels, taking the family to festivals and fair, listening to jazz, watching National Geographic TV and the History Channel, CNN, the Baltimore Ravens, Seinfeld and other classic television shows like The Three Stooges and Sanford and Son.

Bernard leaves to mourn: his loving wife, Linda Little; two daughters, Deetria and Desiree, brother, Gilbert Little (Gwen); two sisters, Melissa and Sonia Little; sister-in-law, Deborah Branch (Kip) and two brother-in-law, Avon S. Davage (Keisha) and Harry Gross, Jr.; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.
