“ I had the honor of several interactions, over the years with Uncle Bernard. I always thought it cool to have been named after him, but it wasn't till I saw him (at 90yrs of age) on the dancefloor that I realized we shared the same passion for dance. It all came together for me, as I realized the name and the passion for music / dance coincidentally carried down the line.

“ Our part of the Lloyd / Navarro family has always been very close with many fond memories over the years. He has always been known as "Uncle B". Uncle Bernard was full of life, he loved to dance, was known for his poetry and words of wisdom at a moments' notice. He always remembered our birthdays and also remembered to send "that winning lottery ticket in the mail!

As a teenager I remembered spending time at his house in Westbury, NY where we would have fun exploring and help with yard work, wash his '64 Thunderbird and also his Cadillac for a few dollars. In addition to his talents and skills he loved to build rock walls both inside and outside his home. In fact, he built rock walls for several of his houses. They were not only beautiful but were recognized throughout the community.

His sister Ernestine (Tina), my father Chi-Chi, his mother Celeste Eugenia Lloyd and the Navarro family lived about 30 minutes away in Wyandanch. The other part of the Lloyd clan lived in Corona, Westbury, Bronx, and Staten Island etc. We frequently had family gatherings and picnics. I spoke with Uncle B several weeks ago when he visited his sister Dorothy Mae in Staten Island while recovering in the hospital.

I pray that Uncle Bernard will rest in peace and God may reward him for his big heart and love of family.
