“ To the family and friends of Bernard Malone I send my deepest condolences to you. In the Bible book of Ecclesiastes 9:4 it states: "For the living are conscious that they will die; but as for the dead, they are conscious of nothing at all" which brings out the point that the deceased do not feel pain, sadness, troubles or anything at all as if living--death can be liken to a sleep state of mind. However all deceased persons have the opportunity to live again through the means of Jesus Christ death which gave all mankind a hope. In the Bible book Of Revelation 21:4 it gives the promise of: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." The scripture demonstrates that in a soon time period death will never again occur, no pain of death. I hope that these scriptures have brought you comfort and hope to see your loved one again.

“ My condolences to your family. Please take comfort in knowing that soon sickness and death will be no more. This promise is found in Rev 21:4: "And God will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more. Neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore, the former things have passed away.

“ Bernard Malone 63, youngest son born to the late Rev. and Mrs. John Malone Sr. on February 10, 1949. Two brothers preceded him in death Linkton Malone of Chicago, Illinois and John Malone Jr. of Moscow, Tennessee. He leaves to cherish his memories a dear brother Simal L Malone (Carolyn) of Baltimore, MD, a half-brother Gene Ambrose of Chicago, Illinois. Three sisters, Mrs. Malinda Benson, Mrs. Aquila Moore and Mrs. Juretha Wheeler all of Memphis, Tennessee. He leaves a sister -in - law Mrs. Glennie Malone, two aunts Mrs. Lillian Stewart and Mrs. Loretha Young of Memphis, Tennessee and several nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends of Baltimore, MD Al and Gary who helped as his caregivers. Several dear friends for over 50 years that he stayed in touch with in Memphis, Tennessee. His dear nieces. Mrs. Nichol Williams (Willie), Michelle Jones of Baltimore, MD, Terry and Paulette Jones of Richmond, VA.

Bernard accepted Christ as his savior at an early age and continued his faith until death. He fought a good fight and has finished his course. May his soul rest in peace. Bernard had special ways and thoughts on expressing his points and views. Bernard had a great sense of humor and a continous chuckle afterwards that would make you laugh. He will be missed and his memory will forever linger in our hearts. May God comfort and keep the family during this time of sorrow.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ I want to express my sorrow over the loss of your loved one. Losing a loved one is something we all wish we never had to go through. Thankfully, within his word the Bible, God promises us that soon "death will be no more". He also gives us the hope of seeing our loved ones who have already fallen asleep in death (Revelation 21:3-4, John 5:28,29). Again I am extending my sincere condolences to the family.
