

Bernard Travis

May 9, 2002 - April 6, 2002

Bernard Travis, son of the late William R. and Mattie Lee Travis, was born on May 9, 1931 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on April 6, 2002. He received his education at Frederick Douglass High School, where he was voted most successful. At the age of nineteen, he joined the Armed Services. After his two-year completion of the Army, he became a full-time employee of Armco Steel for thirty years. Bernard made numerous friends wherever he went, especially at "The 20 West." He will be sincerely be missed by everyone who knew him. He was a true friend and an extremely helpful and devoted man. Bernard enjoyed listening to jazz music, especially listening to Jimmy Smith. He leaves to mourn: his brother, William R. Travis; sister, Jacqueline Jones and the late Lindsay Travis, Susie Evans, Bertha Gordon, Taylor Travis and Charles Travis; seventeen nieces, eighteen nephews, thirty-seven great-nieces and nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.
