

Bernard Wendell Cox

October 7, 1960 - September 23, 2003

Bernard Wendell Cox, son of Mary Cox Hasty and the late Daniel J. Cox was born on October 7, 1960 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on September 23, 2003. Winkey, as he was affectionately known, was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools and worked as a waiter. He got his nickname when he was a baby because he would fall backwards and blink. Winkey was known for his love of fashions, his sense of humor and enjoying life. He modeled for the famed Travis Winkey. He was always “dressed back.” He had to have his sunglasses. Winkey could take pieces of clothes and make an outfit. He loved color and pieces that matched, shirt, shoes, hat, whatever! Winkey would re-name everybody. Hello Zenah, Hi PumpkinSeed, Laqueeda, What’s up Budda, come here, Hamburger. He was outrageous. It was not what he was saying, but how he said it that made it funny. Winkey loved having a good time. Where’s the party at? He could dance you into the floor. Boy, could he dance, the entire time saying you go girl or you go boy! Most of all, he enjoyed hanging out with his Mother. He’d come home, jump onto her bed and say, “Come on Momma, let’s look at some movies. They would snack and watch movies into the wee hours of the morning; Winkey’s positive attitude, smile and joking around will be missed. Winkey knew God from his home Church, Trinity AME, but during the past year, got closer to God and began to trust Him. He knew that Jesus was the only name to call on to be saved...He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving and devoted mother, Mary Cox Hasty; a daughter, Marquita Raley; five brothers, Daniel, Michael,

Phillip, Landell and Kevin; two sisters, Barbara and Patrina; two brothers-in-law, Harry and Kenneth; four sisters-in-law, Regina, Althea, Patty and Darcel; numerous nieces, nephews and a host of family and friends.

“ My condolences to the family. Please take comfort in the promise at Job 14:14,15- "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? All the days of my compulsory service I shall wait, Until my relief comes. You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning."##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
