

Bernice P. Butler

June 6, 1924 - February 28, 2017

BERNICE VERNA PARKER BUTLER departed this life on February 28, 2017.

She was born June 6, 1924 in Baltimore, MD, to John Harry and Mary Agnes Parker. She was their youngest child. She had four brothers, Milton, Earl, Rayner, and LeRoy and one sister, Agnes. Bernice became very close to them after her parents died when she was sixteen.

Bernice persisted through this tragedy and went to live with her brother, Rayner and his wife. She graduated from Frederick Douglass High School, which she attended with Eleanor Johnson, her childhood and lifelong friend. She went on to work for Westinghouse for 25 years. At her death, she had been retired for 30 years.

Bernice Parker found love twice. She married the late Thaddeus Nash Logan and had three children; Thaddeus Nash Logan, Jr., the late Patricia Rayner Logan Williams and Anthony Xavier Logan. Several years later, she married again to the late Gary Bruce Butler. They had two children: Pamela Denice Butler and Gary Bruce Butler, Jr.

In her retirement, Bernice loved cruises and water aerobics; she loved dogs, stories and was known for her cakes. She was a devout Catholic and attended St. Edward's, All Saints, and Immaculate Conception.

Bernice, lovingly called "Ma," was the matriarch of her own large and loving family as well as the last surviving of her siblings. Her house was where cousins met and socialized; she lived to see the birth of her great-great-grandchildren.

She leaves behind: her children and daughter-in-law, Janis Logan; her grandchildren, Jonathan and Monica Logan, Sydnee and Christopher Logan, Patrick, Dominic, and Mark Williams, and Breck Butler; her great-grandchildren, Jonathan and Jasmin Logan, Jasmine Williams, Logan and Parker Williams and Jordan, Hunter, River, Summer, and Autumn Williams; her great-great-grandchildren, Jade and Joey Logan-Miles; her sister-in-law, Ivy Harris; and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.
