

Bernice E. Mercer

May 18, 1925 - July 21, 2009

On July 21, 2009, God sent angels to Bernice Elizabeth Mercer to place upon her wings. She lifted herself and found delight. The wings that were so heavy had grown so light. She was born to Frank and Helen Stewart Chase on May 18, 1925, the second child of seven siblings. She attended the Baltimore City Public Schools and later worked at Bowhagers. She was later employed by the Baltimore City Public School System from which she retired. Bernice married the late George Mercer on December 24, 1957. She had a special place in her heart for Jack and Jill, Tiny and Hilary, her long hair Chihuahua dogs. She leaves to celebrate her life and home going journey: her sister, Lorraine Hill; Phillip Chase Sr., Phillip Chase Jr., Robin Wright Williams (husband Lee) and Andrea Brown (husband Mack); and a host of nieces,, nephews and friends.
