December 27, 1919 - August 12, 2011

To everything there is a season and a time for every purpose – Ecclesiastes 3

A Time To Be Born and A Time To Die:

BERNICE AGNES FOWLKES WATSON was the daughter born to the late Harvey and Matilda “Norene” Henson on December 27, 1919. She departed this life on Friday , August 12, 2011 after a brief illness.

A Time To Be Saved:

Bernice or “Sudie” as she was affectionately called by family and friends was christened in the Catholic Church. Later she changed her denomination and was baptized in Israel Baptist Church. She also visited New David Memorial Baptist Church and Greater Paradise Christian Center.

A Time To Labor :

Sudie received her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. She worked at Comfort Springs and when they closed , she went to school for cosmetology, got her license and opened her own beauty shop. After she closed her shop she went to work at Church Home-Hospital. Sudie started in housekeeping and was later moved to seamstress, from which she retired after twenty-some years. Sudie was skilled in sewing, knitting crocheting and cooking. She could do anything she put her mind to .

She loved to travel. She loved going to Atlantic City, and anytime somebody said come on let's go, she went. She also loved going on family picnics and outings. Sudie was always there for the family and for this we say thanks. She will be greatly missed by all.

A Time To Love:

Bernice's first marriage to Clarence Fowlkes ended in divorce. Later she met and married Ray Watson, who was a jewel. Her marriage to Ray lasted for more the forty years, until death did they part. Sudie was loved by her siblings, Bertha McGlotten, M. Julia Crew and Harvey Henson, Jr who all preceded her in death. Although she did not give birth to any children of her own, she helped raise some of her nieces and nephews and family friends.

Bernice leaves with fond memories: her nieces and nephews; three sisters -in-law, Edna Mae Henson Bertha Hillman and Queenie Barnes of North Carolina; great-nieces and -nephews (five generations), and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. During this time, may all be comforted by the wonderful hope expressed at Revelation 21:4: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more. Neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

“ Oh Ms Bernice. So many times you'd come in and be with us for a little while. We'd make sure that the TV was turned on to "The Price Is Right", you'd have your ham sandwich, Pepsi, cornbread (shortbread) cookies and a nice warm blanket. We talked about home and things you'd seen and experienced. My husband and I shared a wedding photo with you. You told me that every morning you'd wake up, see our picture and feel so good. Well Ms. Bernice we all are truly going to miss you. We love you and will always remember the "Good Times".

To the family of Ms. Bernice we share in your grief but also the joy of having known such a wonderful lady and realizing that we will see her again. We'll miss you.

“ I am so sorry about the lost of your loved one in death. May precious memories and the promise of the resurrection bring you much strength and comfort.

At John 11:25, Jesus said: I am the resurrection and the life. Everyone exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.

Peace be to the family.

“ I would like to express my condolences to the family on the loss of your loved one. May the God of Peace, Jehovah, help to ease your grief and always be beside you as you continue on through life.

Hoping it helps to know that others care and share your loss.

(John 5:28-29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.
