

Bernice M. Hambrick

June 26, 1918 - February 17, 2015

ALICE BERNICE MOSER HAMBRICK was one of five children born to Garland and Della Ickard Moser in Catawba County, NC. She entered into eternal rest February 17, 2015. Miss "B" as she was known by family and close friends, was raised in the Jericho and Snow Hill section of ./ Newton, NC. She attended the St. Paul Methodist Church and was active in Sunday School. She was educated in the public school system of North Carolina. Miss "B" met Alfred E. Hamrick (deceased), son of Albert and Addie Stamey Hamrick, farm owners of Cherokee County, Blacksburg, SC in August 1936. Alfred and Bernice were united in holy matrimony and raised a son, Harry Coulter Hambrick (deceased).

In the early 1940's they relocated to Baltimore, MD. Miss "B" loved to entertain, as she was a member of the Mr. & Mrs. Club. She hosted the New Year's Eve affairs, along with many other affairs.

Bernice leaves to cherish memories: devoted nieces, Patricia England Shufford and Dr. Willie Mae Clark Butler; a dear devoted nephew, Reginald Clark, who was available to her upon call; first, second, and third generations of nieces and nephews; faithful caregivers who transported her to medical appointments, Harvey Taylor and Charles Artis; and godchildren, Mary Harmon and Dr. Nefertiti H. Durant of Birmingham, Alabama.

“ Bernice Hambrick was my "Nana." She was grandmother to me. She and my gramps took care of me everyday as a child while my mother taught school. She made me coffee, grits and eggs for breakfast. To this day - I love coffee and grits. We shared many fun things together. We shopped in catalogs for Nana's clothes. She loved to dress well. We looked up her dreams every day in the "dream book" so we could find just the right numbers hoping one day she would hit "big". Nana taught me to play pokeno. She taught me how to clean a kitchen. She taught me how to sleep in a bed without messing up the sheets at all. She had the cleanest most orderly house that I know of- even when I from the ages of 3-12 stayed in it.

Nana was one of the greatest women I know. I will miss her everyday as I miss her son, my Godfather - Harry Hambrick and her husband Gramps. They were such a blessing to me and I will cherish them all the days of my life.

I love you Nana, Godfather and Gramps to the end of numbers.

“ I am extremely sorry for your loss. I can not imagine the pain you have had to endure. May the God of comfort be with you now and in times to come. God's Word the bible promises the hope of seeing our dead loved ones again. That promise is at John 28,29 and also at Revelations 21: 3,4
