

Bernice Mickle

February 23, 1921 - October 26, 2002

Bernice Mickle, daughter of Mary Clark and Raymond Blackwell was born on February 23, 1921, and suddenly passed away on Saturday, October 26, 2002. Bernice married Edward C. Mickle in November 1937, and from that union one son was born, Edward D. Mickle. Bernice graduated from Frederick Douglass Senior High School and attended Coppin State College. Her career was in the Baltimore Public School System, and she retired from Lake Clifton High School in 1980. Bernice was an active member at the St. Edwards Catholic Church. She was also a member of the Primrosettes Social Club. Bernice and Edward traveled to many cities in their motor home. She stated, she always liked to be on the go, so that she would not get "cabin fever". All that knew her will miss Bernice's warm and loving personality. Bernice leaves to cherish her memory: one son, Edward D. Mickle, Sr.; one daughter-in-law, Geraldine Mickle; one grandson, Edward Mickle, Jr.; two great-grand children, Larry and Shakisha; one great great-grandchild, Aniya; four sisters-in-law, and a multitude of relatives and friends.
