“ *To the family, Please accept my sincere sympathy. It is truly unfortunate that we have to experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. This is a sorrow that God promises will one day be no more (Rev 21:3,4). As you await the fulfillment of this promise may you find comfort from, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who will comfort you in all your tribulations." “ Hi ! Nance's ! How are you all feeling today? I hope these few thoughts will find you all enduring in your recent circle of life being broken. Our creator know how you all are fairing and care, 1 Peter 5:7.It will be wonderful when dying is ended, Isa.25:8. I am looking forward to that time coming. May all the 72 years of memories and sharing with Ms. Bernice help to support you all in the days to come.##imported-begin##lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sympathy to Ms. Nance's family and friends. The loss of a loved one can be painful that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26, Isaiah 25:8 and Rvelation 21:4. Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May you continue to find comfort in God's Word of Truth.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##
