

Bernice Sellers

June 16, 1935 - August 14, 2017

Bernice Sellers, daughter of the late Almaince and Ivory Feaster departed this life on August 14th, 2017 at Joseph Richey House.

She attended Philadelphia public school and graduated with honors from Bok Voc-tech. She met and married the late James Sellers who preceded her in death.

Later in life she moved to Baltimore to help her sister Liz raise her three children. She nurtured them and supported them like they were her own. Bernice had no biological children but what a great aunt she was "wow". She started to work for London Fall, where she met and kept many good friends. She advanced to work for BGE until she took an early retirement in 1994. She then went into nursing care for the elderly until her health failed her. Bernice enjoyed traveling and playing cards. She would have big cookouts for her birthday and the entire family would come (especially the Carters) smile. She also would cook big Xmas dinners and the whole family would come. Bernice was a mother figure for many of her nieces, nephews, and some cousins and she cherished those memories.

Bernice accepted Jesus at an early age. She attended many churches to hear God's word. She joined Friendship Baptist Church, but she enjoyed visiting many other churches. She truly believed that Jesus is our Saviour, and she tried to keep her heart pure. She especially enjoyed the service at Mount Zion Church. After retiring she took a course in Generic Nursing at the Red Cross. She worked with the disabled and elderly. She was an active member of the NAACP. She always gave to the homeless.

She leaves to mourn four sisters: Mary Johnson (Liz) , Alice Payton, Yvonne Feaster and Deborah Feaster of Phila. Two brothers: John Feaster (NC) and Charles Feaster (Phila). One sister-in-law: Joyce Feaster (NC). A host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews and other relatives and friends. Robert Lee Price was more than a cousin he was like a brother/son , he stood by her side from day one until the end. Best friends Henry, Penny, Erby, and one god daughter Lisa England.
