

Bernice Stokes

November 14, 1947 - March 24, 2010

Bernice Stokes, daughter of the late Ethel Green and Joseph Williams, was born November 14, 1947 in Baltimore, Maryland. God called her to His Kingdom on Wednesday, March 24, 2010 at Warm Heart Assisted Living in Germantown, Maryland. Bernice accepted Christ at an early age, was baptized at Centennial United Methodist Church, and later worshipped at Wayland Baptist Church in Baltimore. Education was very important to Bernice. She received her early education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. With a determined mind to pursue Business Education and hospitality services, she was accepted into Paul Laurence Dunbar High School where she graduated in 1965. In her teenage years, she met and fell in love with Wilbert R. Tilghman. In 1965 they were blessed with their one and only daughter, Phonda. In 1978, she met the love of her life, Herbert Stokes, while employed at Union Memorial Hospital in Baltimore. Their love became inseparable. In October of 2000 they formed a bond in marriage until Herbert's peaceful death 2004. Bernice loved to cook and this talent led to her role as dietician at Union Memorial for over 20 years. Her talent grew with the help of Herbert who was the head chef in the kitchen-at work and at home. Bernice loved to sing, dance, and spend time with family. She was free spirited, loved to joke, have fun, and whenever it was time to relax...it was "Miller Time." In 1992 she suffered a massive stroke that managed to impair her physical abilities but, by Grace of God, failed to impact her inner spirit that shined until the day she died. Bernice leaves to cherish her memory: Her loving daughter, Rhonda

Allen; one son-in-law, Darien; one granddaughter, Nyera; two sisters, Alberta Johnson and Janet Jennings; one brother-in-law, Edward; and a host of neices, nephews, cousins, and friends.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May you find comfort as I have, in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, he will by means of his son Jesus 'swallow up death forever'. (Isaiah 25:8) What a wonderful day that will be!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved is such a painful time. Only God truly understands the depth of your pain, and he offers comfort and hope to each of you at this most difficult time . Please read Isaiah 26:19, Psalm 37:29 and John Chapter 11.##imported-begin##P Land##imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will have the opportunity to live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sympathy. The Bible assures us that the time will come when “death will be no more,”—Revelation 21:4. We can confidently look to the future when Jehovah God, the Giver of life, will bury death forever. Fondly, Ashley##imported-begin##Ashley Adams##imported-end##

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Bernice Stokes. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4)##imported-begin##S.
