

Bernice Hilton Winder

January 2, 1934 - April 1, 2013

BERNICE HILTON-WINDER, affectionately known as “Mama” was born January 2, 1934 in Manning, South Carolina to the late James and Virginia Miller. She was called home to glory on April 1, 2013.

Bernice received her education in the South Carolina public school system. She graduated from Manning High School.. Shortly after, she dedicated her life to Christ; she was baptized at the Goo Will Baptist Church in Manning, South Carolina.

Bernice met, and married the late Percy Hilton Sr.; from their union six children were born. Shortly after moving to Baltimore, she met and later married Chester Winder Sr. The two shared an inseparable bond that lasted over 50 years. Their love was evident to all they encountered. During their union, two children joined the family.

In 1987, she joined the Pleasant Rock Baptist church family. She was a faithful member who was very active in a series of ministries: Culinary Arts, Pastor's Aid, and the Missionary ministries. Bernice loved the Lord and her Christian walk was evident to all.

Bernice was a very outspoken person, with a nurturing spirit. Her loving and caring nature was not limited to family. She opened her home, as well as her heart to those in need. She loved to cook; some of her favorite dishes to share were: fried chicken, pork chops, stuffing, seafood, and last but not least chitterlings. In her spare time, she loved to travel.

She leaves to mourn: her loving and devoted husband, Chester Winder Sr.; seven children, Willie Hilton (Renee), Virginia Barnes (the late Eugene), Angela Johnson (Curtis), Percy Hilton Jr., Annette Hilton, Gregory Neal-Hilton, Malayah Wright-Hilton, one son who preceded her in death David Hilton; seven step-children, eleven grandchildren, eleven great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild; five sisters, Martha, Carrie, Mary, Edith, Dorothy, Daisy, (Sonny); and a host of other relatives, friends and extended family.
