

Bernice Winston Strange

September 16, 1917 - January 3, 2003

Bernice Winston Strange walked into God's kingdom on Friday, January 3, 2003 at Good Samaritan Hospital. Bernice was born on September 16, 1917 in Gouchland, Virginia. She was one of six children born to the late Harry and Sallie Garland. She later moved to Baltimore with her two sons Robert G. Winston and George D. Winston where she married her beloved husband Menyerd Earl Strange. They both attended Friendship Baptist Church where Rev. McCoy was pastor. Bernice loved to travel, attend church and be with her friends and family. She loved telling her stories and jokes to make people laugh. She also loved nursing, which she did until she was unable to due to her blindness. Bernice leaves to cherish her memory: her loving husband, Menyerd Strange; her two sons, Robert G. Winston and George D. Winston; five granddaughters, Bernice Tyson, Jean Johnson, Sandra Winston, Cynthia Winston and Sheila Winston; four grandsons, George Winston and Michael Winston, Michael Johnson and Michael Tyson; six great-granddaughters, Syreeta Watts, Ashley Johnson, Christien Johnson, Lori Ann Winston, Ebony and Nichelle Tyson; four great grandsons, Robert Watts, Byron Winston, Michael Winston Jr. and George Winston Jr.; three great-great-granddaughters, DeShawna Mosley, Dezjah Watts and Denaya Watts; daughter-in-law, Ethel Winston; her sister, Harriet Anderson; many devoted nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews, cousins and friends.
