“ My sincerest condolences to all those who loved Bert and knew him. He was truly a wonderful man in so many ways. I came to love him over the 10 years I knew him. He was a man of simple pleasures....family, friends, grandkids ("grands" as he would call them!), eating, sports, & television. Never once did I hear a cross word come out of his mouth about anyone. His voice was always cheerful when I called. He loved going for a ride, shopping for food or clothes. He loved to dress up, and he looked so handsome when he did! I admired his strength & determination to overcome so many adversities throughout his life all on his own. He had a quiet faith that showed up in his daily life. He didn't talk a lot about God in a preachy sort of way, but he loved "going to church" on television every week. I saw his faith in the way he showed kindness to people. I loved his laugh, his sense of humor and wit. I'm sorry I only knew him for 10 years. He blessed my life in so many ways. "Pops," I love you and miss you more than you can imagine. I catch myself tearing up each time I'm in the market wishing I could call to ask if you need anything. I miss picking up the phone and checking on you to be sure you're ok. I'm sorry I didn't know of your passing in time to attend your service. But just know I will join you one day and we'll sit down to the table and enjoy one of your favorite meals you cooked and talk about the "good old days" once again without ever saying goodbye this time. When I get to heaven, I'll follow my nose, because I know you'll be stirring up something good in your crockpot!

If anyone in the family wishes to contact me, my new number is (240) 920-9032. I'd love to hear from you and talk to you about Pops.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much solace and strength from this wonderful hope found in the Bible by the only true God Jehovah and the one whom he sent forth Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
