

Berta Bell Perry

August 6, 1925 - May 22, 2004

On Saturday, May 22, 2004 at 10:00 a.m., God in His Divine Providence call His servant, Berta Perry from labor to reward. Berta Bell Perry, daughter of the late King Solomon and Zuma Avent Wiggins was born August 6, 1925, in Nash County, North Carolina, where she was educated. Berta was converted and baptized at an early age at Philadelphia Baptist Church. Being the youngest of 13, she was affectionately called “Shug” and “Diddy.” Berta met and married the man of her dreams, the late Mr. Andrew Perry, Sr., and out of this union, four sons were born. They resided in Newport News, Virginia, and later relocated to Baltimore, Maryland to raise their family. Berta had a kindred spirit; she was a loving, caring, and devoted mother. She greeted everyone with a warm smile, and hearty laughter. Even during her pain and suffering, she still managed to smile. She was a great listener, full of inspiration, wisdom and encouragement to others. She was an “avid reader.” Her kindness and warm sense of humor will be sincerely missed by all. She leaves to rejoice in her memory: four devoted sons, Andrew Perry, Jr., of York, PA, Richard D. Perry, Willie T. Perry (Georgia), and David L. Perry (Jackie) of Douglasville, GA; two sisters, Bertha Wiggins of Brooklyn, NY, and Irene Patterson of Camden Heights, NY; nine grandchildren, numerous great-grandchildren, four sisters-in-law, two brothers-in-law, a special nephew, Sidney L. Wiggins of Washington D.C., and loving nieces.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures as I have been.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
