

Bertha H. Green

January 7, 1937 - March 10, 2006

BERTHA GREEN, daughter of the late Andrew Harris and Charlotten Harris, was born on January 7, 1937 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on March 10, 2006 after a lengthy illness. Bertha attended Baltimore City Public Schools and was a volunteer at many local churches in the community. Bertha was a very outgoing person who made friends wherever she went. She will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She leaves to mourn: her son, James Harris Green; sister, Lydia Anderson; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry to learn of the loss of your family member Bertha. I am sure that this must have been a very difficult time for all of you. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. That was true when Moses wrote it, but that was not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says, It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written, but not the case before God passed judgment on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##
