

Bertha L. Faircloth

February 28, 1948 - July 16, 2003

Bertha Lee Faircloth, the elder daughter of the late Willie Owens and Alethia Reed Murray, was born on February 28, 1948 in Orangeburg, South Carolina. She departed this life suddenly on Wednesday, July 16, 2003. She moved to Baltimore at the age of five and started her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. She graduated from the Western High School in 1966 and attended the Strayer Business College. Bertha confessed loved for Jesus Christ and joined the New Fellowship Community Church. She was active in the community with food projects. Her expertise as a typist led to many interesting jobs. As a key punch operator she was employed by the Federal Social Security Administration, Provident Hospital, and CSX (The Chessie System). Bertha married Walter Rudolph Faircloth on May 6, 1967. Three sons, Arron Rushon, Romey Allen and Justin Lloyd, were born to this union. Bertha was a kind and loving mother. Her three sons were the apples of her eyes. She nurtured them through some calm and stormy situations. She cared for them even after they reached the adult years. Bertha was a prolific reader. Her spare hours were spent with a paperback novel. She would spend hours relating the details of a story she was reading or had previously read. She was a history buff. She leaves to cherish her memory: three sons, Arron, Romey and Justin; seven grandchildren, April, Chaquille, Romance, Jasmine, Jamia, Markel and Aryonna; one sister, Flora Wharton; aunts, Allen Lewis of Bowman, SC, Annie Moore of Brooklyn, NY; Gertrude Nellums of Chicago, IL and Willie Mae Tate of Washington DC; uncles, IS Murray of Baltimore, MD and Julis Murray of Jersey City, NJ; nephew, George Wharton III; mother-in-law, Rosa Faircloth; sister-in-law, M. Yvonne Faircloth James; brother-in-law, George Wharton II; best friends, Penny and Dawn; a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Bertha L. Faircloth

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Bertha L. Faircloth

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM