

Bertha Mae Lowe

January 24, 1918 - September 9, 2005

On September 9, 2005, BERTHA MAE LOWE departed this life at Maryland General Hospital. Bertha was born on January 24, 1918 to Paige W. and Bertha L. Durham. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools graduating from Dunbar Senior High School. At an early age she attended First Baptist Church, was baptized and became a lifetime member; teaching Sunday School and serving on several committees. Bertha was employed at Martin Marietta for many years until leaving to work at the U.S. Post Office until her retirement. She leaves to mourn: a devoted brother, James W. Durham; one niece, Bertha Haynes; five great-nieces, one great-nephew, four great-great nieces, four great-great nephews, cousins and friends. Her husband, Roland Lowe, preceded her in death.

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy. It is truly unfortunate that at times we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort in the hope of a resurrection offered at Acts 24:15. It has been a constant source of comfort for me and my family.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ *To the family of Mrs. Bertha Lowe. I often sat and talked with Mrs. Lowe. She would visit my office and I would visit her room. She was learning to type on the computer, typing a letter to her brother James (she never sent it). I miss her presence and trust that the God of heaven is holding you up day by day. “ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
