

Bertha Mae Minor

June 25, 1936 - September 10, 2010

Bertha Mae Minor will be remembered for her love, devotion and nurturing that she showered on her family, friends and loved ones. She was a devoted wife, loving mother, grandmother, great greatmother, great great grandmother, caring sister, neighbor and friend.

MaPetie went on to be with the Lord on Friday, September 10, 2010 after a brief illness. She was born in Caroline County and was the ninth of ten children to the late Rollie and Eva Brown.

Petin received her formal education in the Public School System in Caroline County, Virginia. She gave her life to the Lord at an early age and joined Beulah Baptist Church, in Woodford, Virginia. After her relocation to Richmond, Virginia she joined Great Hope Baptist Church, where she was a faithful member until her illness.

On September 2, 1962, Petin was united in marriage to the late Walter Minor. Together, they raised nine beautiful children.

MaPetie loved playing the Wii, any kind of games and especially cards. If you ever needed a meal, a shoulder to lean on, an ear to listen or just a beautiful smile you could count on MaPetie.

“ To the Family of Bertha Mae Minor:

There are no words that can truly ease the pain of a sudden loss like this, but if caring thoughts can help, they are with you there right now. May thoughts of all your mother meant - of love she gave, of good times spent - bring you peace and comfort, and keep your mother close to you.

With Heartfelt Sympathy
