

Bertha Powe

January 10, 1930 - April 10, 2009

BERTHA POWE, daughter of the late Lester McManue and late Myrtle Funderburk, was born in Cheraw, South Carolina on January 10, 1930. She departed this life after a lengthy illness on Friday, April 10, 2009. After receiving her education in Cheraw, S.C., Bertha met and married Perry Powe. Perry and Bertha moved to Baltimore, Maryland in the late 1950s and had one son, Perry Jr. Both Perry Sr. and Perry Jr. preceded her in death. Later Bertha met and married Earl Haskins who also preceded her in death. Bertha later received Jesus Christ as her personal Lord and Savior and became a faithful member of the Seventh Baptist Church where she remained until her health failed. Bertha was a loving, fun and outgoing person. Before her health failed her, she loved going shopping at the thrift and dollar stores. She also enjoyed spending time at the Johns Hopkins Elder Plus Center, as well as spending time with her close friends and family. She leaves to cherish her memory: her cousin, Agnes (Philadelphia); her loving and devoted niece, Toni (Angie) (Terry Sr.); a host of other loving nieces and nephews, Tina, Steve, Danny, Reginald, Terry Jr. from Baltimore, Bridgette, Monica and Andre from Philadelphia; two loving goddaughters, Jean and Mary from Baltimore; a devoted friend, Gracie; her Elder Plus Family, a host of other relatives and friends.
