Mrs. Bertha Fletcher was born July 18, 1928 in Cambridge, Maryland. Mary and Namon Kane adopted her at an early age. She received her early education in Dorchester County Public Schools. Mrs. Fletcher attended the Methodist Church in Cambridge, Maryland. She was married in Cambridge, Maryland to the late Charles Moses Fletcher. From this union was born a daughter, Portia. She and her husband later moved to Baltimore, Maryland. To further her education she attended Booker T. Washington High School and studied nursing during a night course. Mrs. Fletcher was a member of Greater Hope Church of God in Christ Church. She functioned as Mother of the Usher Board of her church. God bless my daughter Portia Kane-Cephas and all my grandchildren and great-grandchildren. I love them all.
