

Bertha Louise Stith

December 28, 1923 - July 26, 2010

BERTHA LOUISE STITH, fondly called Soota, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on December 28, 1923. She was the second daughter of the late Esther Lee Bobbitt and Martha Gentry Bobbitt.

She attended the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Fredrick Douglass High Evening School.

On March 14, 1945, Bertha was united in holy Matrimony to Major Stith, Jr. After fifty-four years of marriage, he preceded her in death.

As a youth and young adult, Bertha attended Sunday School and worship services at St. Paul Baptist Church. In later years she joined Ebenezer Baptist Church. In May 1988, Bertha was honored as one of "Ebenezer's Best." She attended worship services regularly until her health began to decline.

Bertha was employed for over twenty- five years for a prominent physician in Baltimore City. Here, she learned all the "top secrets" of the medical profession. She made many lasting friendships during her employment at Jenkins Memorial Home where she worked for over fifteen years.

She enjoyed traveling, chatting with her neighbors in Cherry Hill and watching golf tournaments on television. She was also known for speaking her mind whether you liked it or not.

She leaves to cherish her memory: three devoted nieces, Elaine T. Davis, Jean T. Nowlin and Shirley D. Turner; great nieces and nephews; a devoted cousin, Beatrice Gentry; cousins and other relatives and friends.
