

Bertha Theresa Carter

February 5, 1919 - November 9, 2002

Bertha Theresa Carter, daughter of the late Harry and Carrie Cohen, was born February 5, 1919 in Baltimore, Maryland. On February 6, 1935, Bertha married the late Aloysius Penn Carter Sr. Out of this union Bertha and Aloysius were blessed with eight children. She received her education through the Baltimore City private and public School systems. She held various occupations in the Baltimore area throughout her life including Calvert Hall College, Stella Maris Hospice, South Baltimore General and Good Samaritan Hospitals, until her early retirement due to illness. Bertha was a firm believer of God and carried Him in her heart constantly. She was a member of St. John A.M.E. church but also worshipped with other church families and often at home. She loved listening to inspirational hymns, especially "What A Friend We Have In Jesus." With her outgoing personality and willingness to help others, she enjoyed sitting on the porch and talking to neighbors. She took extreme pleasure in family gatherings, eating crabs and moreover crab cakes. Bertha is survived by her children, Jacqueline Mills, Aloysius Carter Jr., Kermey Carter, Cynthia Gourdine, Robert Carter, Barbara Carter and one adopted child, Charles Carter; twelve grandchildren, thirty great grandchildren; one son-in-law, Jerome Gourdine Sr.; one daughter-in-law, Marlene Carter; and a host of nieces, nephews and devoted friends

“ Momma, I know life is marvelous now. Al was waiting at heavens gates with his starcastic remarks and your face glowing when you saw his face; Jesus welcoming you home embracing you telling you job well done. Now you will get the rest you need and the joy you deserve. I LOVE YOU and MISS YOU but I know you are in a better place. Kiss POP for me and rest in peace.##imported-begin##Charles W. “ The richness of the human experience is in what is handed down from one life to the next –not simple things of mortar and stone, but memories of what one said or felt or did. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
